

MORE CIVILIAN MANIFESTATIONS. — In one of the naval actions on the Mississippi a rebel boat was so severely injured that her crew took to the water. Boats were instantly lowered from one of our vessels and the gallant tars pulled their crew back to the ears to their helpless enemy.		METEOROLOGICAL TABLE FOR THE MONTH OF JULY, 1861.

the first time I ever saw a Kestonian rifle (we didn't mind the cannon much), the first left me standing almost alone, like that old tree cut here in the field. A field officer rode up, and said to me, "charges, you recall charges! and I did charge. It when I got to the top of the hill, I fell down. It was for me in the mud, and I was in the battle was over, not even croaking my finger."

One more anecdote and we were done. The last was about a Kestonian officer, a captain, that in conversation with Gen. Adair, who was,
